OUR FRENCH DREAM

Cheryl and I fell in love with France back in 1988 on our first visit, but it took us 34 years, 3 children, multiple foster children and finally 5 grandchildren to realise that if we didn't make the move now, then we probably never would!

We are living proof that it's never too late to follow your dreams, take the plunge, the change of career and create the life you always imagined you'd live.

As seen on...
A NEW LIFE IN THE SUN

A new life in the sun is a UK TV programme that follows the fortunes of British couples who decide to start a new life overseas. Cheryl and Simon were followed for a year, through the early part of the renovations by camera crews, watching Fig Trees transform from a 200 year old farm house to a luxury Gite business.

The camera crews are back this year to catch up on the development and do a follow up film.

ABOUT FIG TREES

16 PERSONS

5 ROOMS

8 BEDS

5 BATHROOMS

Our 200 year old farmhouse in South West France is surrounded by vineyards and stunning countryside. All of our guests so far continually comment on how peaceful it is here.

The farmhouse is being lovingly restored to its original glory, with decor and furnishings that pay homage to the property's 19th century heritage.

Tradition meets a chic edge, with elegant chandeliers, grand doorways, patterned wall papers and plush furnishings; in our tranquil farmhouse. The picturesque grounds also host a rustic barn, swimming pool, and wild meadows.

Out back, surrounded by vineyards and farmland is a large swimming pool and extensive gardens.

MUST SEE

Local Destinations

1

EYMET

Eymet is a pretty bastide town in the south-east of the Dordogne department, with a good number of ancient houses and monuments to remind us of its history. It is an attractive and unspoiled town with a thriving central square, and it is in a pretty location on the banks of the Dropt river.

2

BERGERAC

Bergerac is a town on the northern bank of the Dordogne river in the western part of the Dordogne department: it is one of the largest, most important towns in the region.

3

PERIGUEUX

Périgueux is rich in 2000 years of history. From the ancient Gallo-Roman city Vesunna as populated as it is today to the Renaissance medieval city, the city has 44 buildings registered or classified as Historical Monuments.

4

DURAS

A pleasant town, if rather quiet, Duras has one main sight that attracts visitors: the Chateau de Duras. There is also a medieval clocktower, and a sprinkling of attractive houses to enjoy while exploring, and the impressive Maison des Vins commemorating the highly regarded wines of the region.

5

ISSIGEAC

The village of Issigeac is in the southern part of the Dordogne department to the east of Eymet and south-east of Bergerac, on a site occupied since the 6th century by a monastery and with prehistoric habitations that were occupied thousands of years ago.

WINE TASTING

Local Vinyards

There are more châteaux in the Dordogne region than in any other part of France. Many vineyards are also waiting to be explored: most of them offer wine tasting, and sell their produce at very cheap prices. The St Emilion region with its exceptional wines is just 40 minutes away.

CHATEAU DE FAOLLE

Welcome to our own slice of paradise, 130 acres of rolling hills and woodland located up above the left bank of the Dordogne River between Bergerac and St. Emilion. With 36 acres of vines of both red and white grapes in production, Château de Fayolle is dedicated to making fine wine of an authentic, yet modern character.
